Re : Joint report on the implementation of the "telework agreement" in Greece

Following your letter of 19.04.06 concerning the above issue, we would like to inform you that the undersigned partners of the National Collective Agreement agreed on a common greek translated text of the EU agreement, which was attached to the body of the mentioned National Agreement signed on the 12 April 2006.

The content of the agreement bind all enterprises of the private sector as well as all types of employers' and employees' organizations.

Furthermore, social partners engaged to disseminate the text to all their members and interest parties.
