- Introduction and challenges
- 2. Social partners' approach
- 3. Four priorities:
 - Learning
 - Transition
 - Employment
 - Entrepreneurship
- 4. Promotion, actions and follow-up

INTRODUCTION

- 5.68 million* of young Europeans are currently unemployed.
- Youth unemployment twice as high as overall unemployment since a long time.
- Crisis has exacerbated youth unemployment challenge, with lack of job opportunities.
- Many young people lack work experience and competences.
- 42% of young people in temporary contracts, 32% in part time contracts.
- Longer and unpredictable transitions impact confidence.
- High cost of youth unemployment for economies and societies.

CHALLENGES

1.

Create more and better jobs and attractive career opportunities.

2.

Strengthen the quality and relevance of education and training to address skills mismatches.

3.

Optimise the role of industry, in particular SMEs, and of high-performing public services.

SOCIAL PARTNERS' APPROACH

- A shared responsibility of actors:
 - Social partners;
 - Public authorities;
 - Other stakeholders.
- A multi-pronged approach needed with measures and appropriate resources to secure high-quality learning outcomes and create jobs.
- A Framework of Actions based on existing and new practices providing practical solutions to national social partners.
- Recommendations to EU institutions and Member States.

4 PRIORITIES: Learning

Primary and secondary education essential for pupils to acquire basic skills for further education and training.

Apprenticeships and traineeships play an important role in reducing the risks of long transitions.

LEARNING

Dual learning systems can contribute to lower youth unemployment levels.

Cross-border
mobility of teachers, trainers and young people; study of
foreign languages;
and cooperation for innovation and reduction of the skills mismatch.

4 PRIORITIES: Learning

- Monitoring of VET systems, including apprenticeships also EU alliance.
- Ensuring clear terms and learning objectives for quality apprenticeships.
- Considering actions towards Council and Parliament on quality framework on traineeships.
- Promoting education that meets labour market needs.
- Strengthening dual elements of work-based learning models.

ACTIONS

Short term

Long term

RECOMMENDATIONS

- ESF funding for apprenticeship systems development.
- Social partners' involvement in EU programmes. Role for European semester.
- National or sectoral training funds.
- European and national campaigns to change perception of VET.

- Spreading principles of work-based learning in secondary and higher education.
