EUROPEAN SOCIAL PARTNERS¹

FRAMEWORK OF ACTIONS ON YOUTH EMPLOYMENT

JUNE 2013

¹ The ETUC delegation includes representatives of the EUROCOMPEX/CECILE Committee
ETUC – THE EUROPEAN TRADE UNION CONFEDERATION
BUSINESSEUROPE – THE CONFEDERATION OF EUROPEAN BUSINESS
ORGANISATIONS
CEEP – EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION OF SMALL AND MEDIUM-SIZED ENTERPRISES
UAPME – THE EUROPEAN CENTRE OF EMPLOYERS AND ENTERPRISES PROVIDING PUBLIC SERVICES

Youth (un)employment today

- Although it has decreased – from more than 23% in February 2013 to less than 19% in August 2016 (about 4.2 people aged 15-24 years) – the youth unemployment rate is still very high in the EU (with peaks of more than 40% in several countries)
- EU youth unemployment rate has always been structurally high and it is more than double the overall unemployment rate (19% in August 2016 compared with 9% average unemployment rate for all groups)
- Big differences between countries: there is a gap of more than 30 percentage points between the Member States with the lowest rate of youth unemployment (Germany at 7%) and the Member States with the highest rates, Greece (48%) and Spain (43%)
 - EU countries have been performing to a varying degree to set practices that encourage youth employment

Youth (un)employment today

- In 2015, more than 6,6 million young people (aged 15-24 years) were neither in employment nor in education or training (NEETs) in the EU, compared to around 7.5 million in 2012
- Fixed-term contracts covered 43.3% for the 15-24 age group and 32.1% of young people were employed with part time contracts (same age group, 2015)
- 11% of those aged 18-24 were early school leavers in 2015

The negotiation process

EUROPEAN SOCIAL PARTNERS WORK PROGRAMME 2012 - 2014

Priority

CHALLENGES

1.

Create more and better jobs and attractive career opportunities.

2.

Strengthen the quality and relevance of education and training to address skills mismatches.

3.

Optimise the role of industry, in particular SMEs, and of high-performing public services.

Content of the FoA

SOCIAL PARTNERS' APPROACH

- A shared responsibility of actors:
 - Social partners;
 - Public authorities;
 - Other stakeholders.
- A multi-pronged approach needed with measures and appropriate resources to secure high-quality learning outcomes and create jobs.
- A Framework of Actions based on existing and new practices providing practical solutions to national social partners.
- Recommendations to EU institutions and Member States.

Content of the FoA

4 PRIORITIES: Learning

Primary and secondary education essential for pupils to acquire basic skills for further education and training.

Apprenticeships and traineeships play an important role in reducing the risks of long transitions.

Dual learning systems can contribute to lower youth unemployment levels.
